

Defining Vagrancy and to Restrain and Punish the Same

The Town of Yacolt does ordain as follows:

Section 1. All persons who have no visible means of support, or lawful occupation or employment by which to earn a living; all persons who habitually roam about the streets, without any lawful business; all idle or unsalutary persons who live in or about houses of ill fame, or houses for the resort of prostitutes all habitual drunkards, gamblers, or other disorderly persons, all persons going about as collectors of alms for charitable institutions under any false or fraudulent pretenses; all persons playing or betting in the streets, or public or open places, at or with any table or instrument of gaming at any game or pretended game of chance; all tramps, all persons having no known occupation or business who shall be found wandering about the streets after the hour of 12^{o'clock} P. M., shall be deemed vagrants.

Section 2. All persons convicted of being vagrants as defined in the foregoing section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding

One Hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in default of payment of such fine, may during the time of imprisonment, be compelled to work upon the streets or public grounds of the city, or otherwise, as directed by the city marshal.

Read first and second times June 4, 1909
Read third time and passed June 9, 1909

I certify the above to be a true copy of ordinance No. 17 as read.

Wm W Eaton
Town Clerk

[The Yacolt Town Clerk's Office created the following version of this Ordinance for the convenience of the Town's citizens and agents. This is not an official document of the Town of Yacolt.]

ORDINANCE 17

DEFINING VAGRANCY AND TO RESTRAIN AND PUNISH THE SAME

The Town of Yacolt does ordain as follows:

Section 1. All persons who have no visible means of support, or lawful occupation or employment by which to earn a living, all persons who habitually roam about the streets without any lawful business; all idle or insolent persons who live in or about houses of ill-fame, or houses for the resort or prostitutes all habitual drunkards, gamblers, or other disorderly persons, all persons going about as collections of alms for charitable institutions under any false or fraudulent pretenses; all persons playing on betting in the streets, or public or open places, at or with any table or instrument of gaming at any game or pretended game of chance; all tramps, all persons having no known occupation or business who shall be found wondering about the streets after the hour of 12 o'clock P.M. shall be deemed vagrants.

Section 2. All person convicted of being vagrants as defined in the forgoing section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in default of payment of such fine, may during the time of imprisonment, be compelled to work upon the streets or public grounds of the city, or otherwise, as directed by the city marshal.

Read first and second times June 4, 1909

Read third time and passed June 9, 1909

I certify the above to be a true copy of ordinance No. 17 as read.

Eaton
Town Clerk